

It's Not Mean to be Green

Make a Monster Difference

It's Not Mean to be Green the Musical* ~ The Show That's Helping Kids Make a Monster Difference!

Based on the book It's Not Mean to be Green by Jamie Kleman

Michael McDurth was having a normal day... until his sister announced she was “Going Green!” Michael is convinced that being green is only for witches, Frankenstein, and other creepy monsters. But as he listens, learns and grows, Michael realizes that these monsters actually represent specific areas of the environment they protect, and that we can all be a part of the team.

About Jamie Kleman

Jamie Kleman is the author of several children’s books, including It's Not Mean to be Green. She is the Executive Producer and playwright for It's Not Mean to be Green the Musical, which enjoyed a two-year tour following its debut. Jamie has dreamed of making the show accessible to organizations across the country... and that day is here!

Kleman has spent extensive time with schools and youth organizations, and consistently delivers messages that inspire creativity, confidence, and compassion. She has been featured on television, radio, and in publications, and was a guest speaker at TEDxWilmington and TEDxWilmingtonUniversity.

Bring Environmental Awareness to Life Through Theater

Perfect for schools, homeschool pods, scout troops, libraries, museums, and all organizations dedicated to learning, creativity, and nurturing future stewards of the environment, It's Not Mean to be Green the Musical is a unique camp and performance experience.
